Pull off here and use your hazards for a great view of the Westhampton Green. If the small loop is occupied, head straight and pull off in front of Keller Hall.

Next up we will be driving over to the Stern Quad where we will talk more about academics including the Jepson School of Leadership Studies and the Robins School of Business. While the Stern Quad Loop is closed due to construction on Ryland Hall, we encourage you to park in one of the U6 Parking Lots after making a right onto Ryland Circle. If possible, try to find a spot facing the construction and as close to Ryland Hall as possible, so that you are able to see most of the academic buildings we will discuss.

Arrive at Stop 8: Stern Quad Parking Lot.
